

Designer Abhi Singh presented his collection, Contrast, at the HT City Club Fashion Nights 2019

WHEN SIMPLICITY MEETS ELEGANCE

These easy-breezy ensembles, in muted tones, received applause from fashion enthusiasts in the Capital

Sanchita Kalra

Ensembles that speak of effortless design and aesthetic that spells sophistication — that's what designer Abhi Singh's Spring Summer 2019 collection titled, Contrast, is all about. The collection was showcased at the HT City Club Fashion Nights 2019.

Rich draping and inventive craftsmanship of ensembles completed with flawless fits makes this Delhi-based designer a one-of-a-kind. At the do, Singh presented anti-fit silhouettes that take inspiration from prints like geometric, a touch of floral and shapes that exist in the art world.

Talking about the collection, he said, "The outfits are easy-breezy in toned down shades which are very skin-friendly and easy to wear." The label stands for its uniqueness and mesmerising style that blends with rich, lush colours, has a variety of options to pick from that includes skirts, pants, long and high-low dresses to help you make an effortless sartorial statement.

sanchita.kalra@htlive.com

Models showcasing the light and easy-to-wear collection by Abhi Singh
PHOTOS: MANOJVERMA/HT

HAIR AND MAKEUP: Naina Arora
SHOW DIRECTOR: Lokesh Sharma

How to stay stylish yet cosy and comfy this winter

PHOTO: MANOJ VERMA

Deepak Bansal, director, Cantabil

Upscale puffed, bombers and versatile knits retain an opulent sensibility, while styling reinforces the club look

PHOTOS: HTCS

Sanchita Kalra

With the winter season comes the challenges of dressing up right for a party. And to stand out from the crowd, the race of pinning down on the perfect party-ready attire for a scene-stealing look begins. To help you keep your fashion game strong, here's Cantabil, an affordable menswear, womenswear and kidswear fashion brand. The ongoing

HT City Club Fashion Nights 2019 is powered by Cantabil.

The brand believes one can easily be a head turner with something as simple as good jeans, T-shirt and a jacket. Deepak Bansal, director, Cantabil, says, "Our range offers stylish knitted blazers, bombers, puffed jackets, leather jackets and suede jackets majorly meant for clubs and parties, but also go well for casual outings."

He also says, "Apart from the usual black and navy, we have deeper shades such as olive, burgundy. The knitted blazers and premium bombers are available in black, camel, red, yellow etc to enhance the look."

Bansal also gives a fashion tip to make a style statement. "As denims are in, combine our jackets with a denim shirt, even pairing those with checkered shirts makes you look dapper."

Mohit Gulati
PHOTOS: MANOJ VERMA/HT

This party was a power-packed one

Naina Arora

Sahil Bajaj

The night kicked off with a fashionably-forward ramp show, which was followed by party revellers indulging in delish food and boozy beverages and grooving to the super hit tracks played by the in-house DJ. To revel in the grandeur of the glitzy get-together were regulars from the party-circuit, who were looking their sartorial best.

Sanchita Kalra

Karishma and Deepa Sondhi

Ajay Bindal

Lokesh Sharma

Nidhi Kohli, Isha Sehgal and Shivam Kohli

PHOTOS: HTCS/MANOJ VERMA

Picture of the day

A model showcases Rajni Gandha Pearls, flavoured cardamom seeds, at the HT City Club Fashion Nights 2019, held in the Capital over the weekend.

Appreciating the efforts

Kanika Sharma received a token of appreciation and a gift hamper from designer Abhi Singh for helping him every bit of the way, right from drawing board stage to actual showcasing of silhouettes. A sparkling salute by Rajni Gandha Pearls which believes in, 'Achchai ki ek alag chamak hoti hai'.